

SST BAME Representatives

The constitution of the Society of the Study of Theology (SST) provides for two Black, Asian, and Minority Ethnic (BAME) representatives. The BAME representatives are elected to the SST Executive Committee at the Annual General Meeting of the SST and serve for a period of three years.

BAME is broadly understood and anyone who identifies as BAME, or Majority World, or of BAME or Majority World heritage is eligible to stand for this position.

The BAME representatives will serve on the SST Executive Committee in the same manner as other committee members but will also help to ensure that the voices of BAME scholars and their interests are consistently represented in the meetings of the SST Executive Committee. BAME representatives will also be a bridge between SST and other theological groups that represent and include BAME and Majority World scholars and constituencies in the UK and around the world. For more information about how the Society functions and the role of the Executive Committee see <https://www.theologysociety.org.uk/about-us/constitution/>

The BAME representatives will work closely with the Assistant Secretary on the ongoing work of the Society with regard to Theology and Race. For more information about this work see <https://www.theologysociety.org.uk/initiatives/theology-and-race/>

If you are interested in standing as a BAME representative, please contact the SST Secretary via admin@theologysociety.org.uk
