Conference Venue: Ramphal Building

The conference will take place on the ground, first and second floors of the Ramphal Building.

Registration will be open from 4pm in the foyer of the Ramphal Building. On entering the building, you will see the registration desk on the lefthand side. There will be seating available in the foyer, and members of the SST Executive Committee will be there to welcome conference attendees and provide any information required.

Entrance to the Ramphal Building:

Plenary sessions will take place in the lecture theatre (R0.21).

Seminars will be spread across eight seminar rooms in the Ramphal Building: four on the ground floor (R0.03, R0.04, R0.12 and R0.14) and four on the first floor (R1.03, R1.04, R1.13 and R1.15). There is lift access between floors.

Ramphal Building directory:

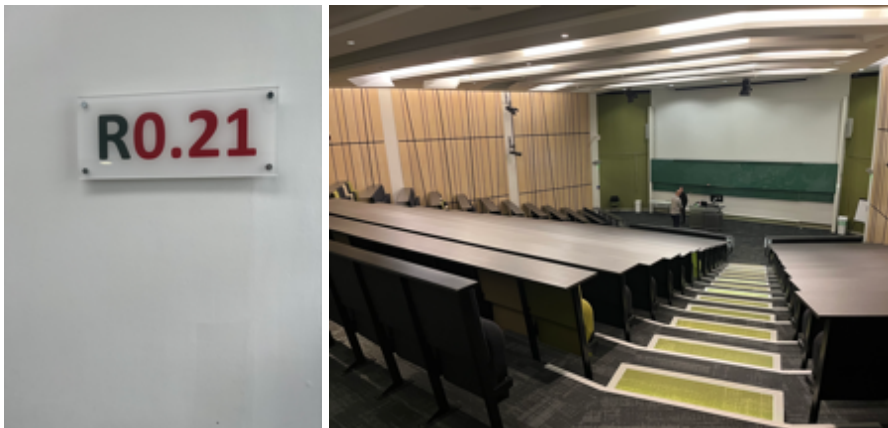

There is step-free access to the lecture theatre, all seminar rooms, and accessible toilets from the main entrance of the Ramphal Building, and this will be clearly signposted during the conference.

All rooms are connected to the hearing loop system, including the lecture theatre, and headsets are available on request for those who require them.

One of the seminar rooms on the second floor will be a designated quiet room for the duration of the conference.

Lecture theatre in the Ramphal Building:

View from the front of the lecture theatre:

There is step-free access to the lecture theatre on both the ground and first floors, and this will be clearly signposted during the conference.
